TERMS OF USE

Unless stated otherwise, the terms in this section apply generally when using our website. Specific or additional conditions may apply in certain situations and are noted in this document.

By using our website, you confirm the following:

- you are older than [number of years of age];
- you are not in a country subject to a government embargo, or that has been designated as a “terrorist-supporting” country;
- you are not listed on any government list of prohibited or restricted parties.

LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

Note: This section covers the limits of your liability, your disclaimer of warranties, and the circumstances in which users agree to indemnify you. The correct wording varies significantly between the EU, the UK, and the US — each jurisdiction has its own requirements, and a clause written for one may not be valid in another. We recommend tailoring this section to the jurisdictions where your business operates and where your customers are based.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

Note: Include this section if you sell products or services. At minimum, cover your prices, accepted payment methods, delivery terms, and the customer’s right of withdrawal. EU and UK consumer law sets specific requirements — including a 14-day withdrawal right and a 2-year legal guarantee on physical goods — that differ from US rules. If you sell across multiple markets, this section will need to reflect each one.

COMMON PROVISIONS

No waiver

Our failure to assert any right or provision under these terms does not waive that right or provision. No waiver will constitute a continuing waiver of such term or any other term.

Service interruption

To maintain the best service level, we reserve the right to interrupt the service for maintenance, updates, or other changes, with appropriate notification. The service may also be unavailable due to events beyond our reasonable control, such as infrastructure breakdowns or blackouts.

Service reselling

You may not reproduce, duplicate, copy, sell, or exploit any part of our website or its service without our express written permission.

Privacy policy

For information on the use of personal data, please refer to our website's privacy policy.

Intellectual property rights

All intellectual property rights associated with our website, including copyrights, trademarks, and design rights, are exclusively owned by us or our licensors and are protected by applicable laws and international treaties. You may not use them without our written permission.

Changes to these terms

We reserve the right to modify these terms at any time and will inform you of any changes. Your continued use of the service after a change signifies your acceptance of the revised terms. If you do not wish to be bound by the changes, you must stop using the service.

Assignment of contract

We reserve the right to transfer, assign, or subcontract any or all rights or obligations under these terms, considering your legitimate interests. You may not assign or transfer your rights or obligations under these terms without our written permission.

Severability

If any provision of these terms is found invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

Contact

All communications regarding the use of our website must be sent using the contact information provided in this document.

GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Note: State the governing law and venue of jurisdiction that apply to your business. If you sell to consumers in the EU, you should also reference the European Commission's online dispute resolution platform, which EU consumers are entitled to use. Choose carefully based on where your business is incorporated and where your customers are located.
